Setting Up A non profit to get funding

1. First steps to set up a Health & Wellbeing Project- decide how to do it
2. What is the appropriate structure to develop it? Non-profit making company- CLG or CIC, community group, social enterprise or other structure

<https://knowhow.ncvo.org.uk/setting-up/legal-forms-for-non-pr ofits-1>

You cannot get much funding as an individual

3. Access Funding for Wellbeing Projects - you can then access charitable grants, Crowdfunding, Lottery funding, private sector funding, income generation and others

4. You may need advice from an accountant or solicitor depending on circumstances- CNT offer business development advice not legal advice

Funding Central

If you are a small organisation you may not have to pay.

www.myfundingcentral.co.uk

There is a wide variety of funding sources , which is regularly updated.

There is a charge for some organisations so please check the site for details

London Catalyst -

<https://www.londoncatalyst.org.uk/grants>

London Catalyst support project that address the unmet health needs of Londoners, especially focusing on those from disadvantaged communities.

They offer 3 types of grant, one is below

PROJECT GRANTS support new initiatives and service developments targeted at people disadvantaged as a result of long term ill-health, disability and poverty.

Grants range from £1,000 to £5,000; the average in 2019 was £3,000.

Occasionally trustees will consider a larger grant for projects which are 'catalytic' and likely to demonstrate impact.

Community Business Fund

Community businesses will be able to apply for grants of between £10,000 and £20,000 to adapt and evolve to the changing circumstances; and to remain financially viable.

- Dedicated to improving women's equality and/or human rights
- Governed by a group of women, girls or trans people (Global Fund for Women awards grants to groups, not individuals)

www.globalfundforwomen.org

Rosa Fund – www.rosa.org

Delivered by Rosa and Smallwood Trust, the Women Thrive Fund is distributing grants of up to £40,000 to specialist women's organisations across the UK. – CHECK SITE FOR LATEST DETAILS

Organisations should be working to enable women and girls to improve their mental health and wellbeing and/or improve their financial resilience.

The fund responds directly to what women's and girls' organisations have told us throughout the pandemic: that declining mental health, increased risk of emotional trauma and increased poverty levels are their biggest concerns for women and girls across the UK.

Entry Criteria

Organisations can apply for:

- Grants of up to £15,000 with a turnover of £200,000 inclusive
- Grants of up to £40,000 with a turnover of £200,001 – £999,999.

They can also apply for an additional 25% of their grant request for work which will strengthen their organisation.

Small Wood Trust

Funding for BAME led women's projects –EXAMPLE from November 2020

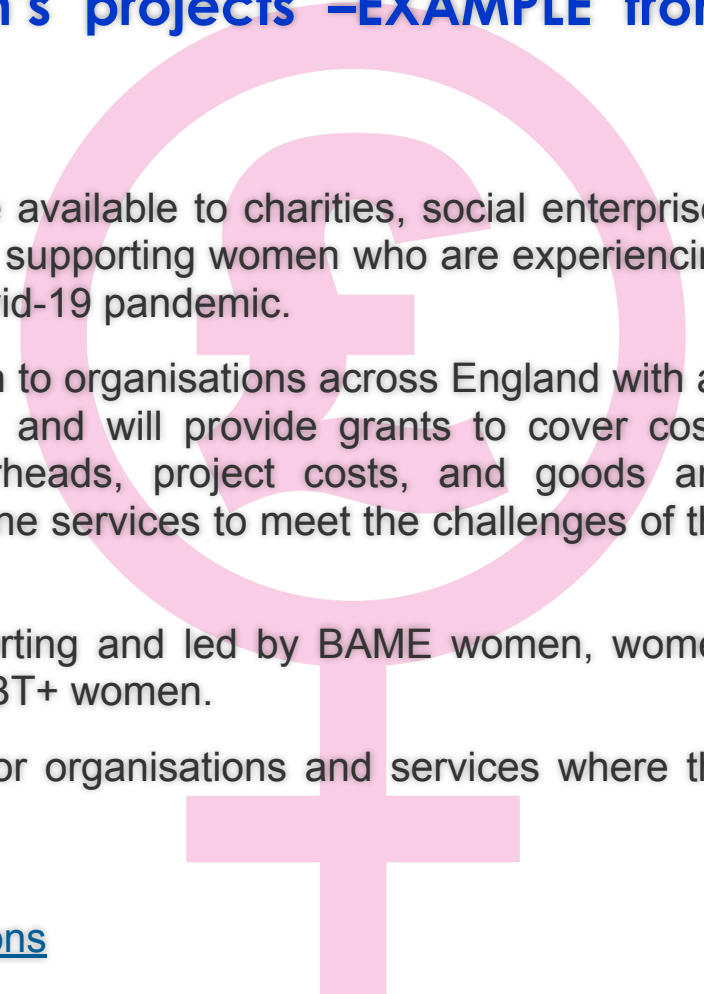

Grants of between £20,000 and £30,000 are available to charities, social enterprises and other not-for-profit organisations that are supporting women who are experiencing poverty and low income as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic.

The Women's Sector Resilience Fund is open to organisations across England with an income of less than £1 million per annum; and will provide grants to cover costs including staff salaries, running costs/overheads, project costs, and goods and equipment to support the adaptation of frontline services to meet the challenges of the Covid-19 crisis.

Priority will be given to organisations supporting and led by BAME women, women with disabilities and financially vulnerable LGBT+ women.

Funding will be prioritised for women's sector organisations and services where the pandemic has had the most impact including:

Other Sources of Funding

There are a range of other funding sources including

Private Sector

Social Investment

Local
Funding

Crowd-
funding

Wellcome Trust

The UK's largest pharmaceutical company and also the largest charitable grant funder in the UK - over £700 million per year distributed.

They have a range of funding and grant programmes including:

Public Engagement Fund

Funding for organisations, companies and individuals in any sector who have the ability to engage the general public through health-related research and science, throughout the UK- this can be illustrated using any creative methodology- i.e. film, art, digital media, drama, animation etc.

Grants range from £5,000 to £3,000,000

For information about this and other programmes: www.wellcome.ac.uk

Crowdfunding

- Crowdfunding is a new concept based on working with specific communities, organisations and individuals to directly fund projects
- You pledge money as an individual or organisation
- When the total is reached - it is usually time limited, the pledgers have to pay, platform takes between 4-9% of what is raised - other terms though can be negotiated on some sites
- What is key to this – communities of influence or common bonds
- Driving traffic to the pledger website
- You can pledge large or small amounts of money
